

Indiana State Library and Historical Bureau

State Employee Appreciation Week Events

Thursday, March 22 9:00am – 4:00pm

The beautiful library building houses two state agencies, the Indiana State Library and the Indiana Historical Bureau. The Library's research collections include several million items available for use by state employees and the general public. The Historical Bureau performs research in Indiana history and makes this information available to state employees and the general public through print and web-based publications, exhibits, and a book shop. Come on in and discover what materials and services we have for you!

- Tours: Each tour lasts approximately 30 minutes. Tours begin in the lobby of the Ohio Street entrance.

Architectural: The architectural tour focuses on the original section of the building (dedicated 1934). The tour provides general information on murals, stained glass, carvings, and connections to Indiana in design elements.

Tour times: 9:00am, 10:00, 11:00, noon, 1:30pm, 2:30, 3:30.

Informational: The informational tour gives overview of materials and services available and where to find them. Highlights include the state data center, government documents, historical maps and photos, the world's most complete collection of Indiana newspapers, interlibrary loan, and more.

Tour times: 9:30am, 10:30, 11:30, 12:30, 1:00, 2:00, 3:00.

- Library card sign-up
- 20% discount at Indiana Historical Bureau book shop
- Free stuff: Posters! Pens! Bookmarks!

The State Library and Historic Bureau is located at the corner of Senate Ave and Ohio St. The building has three entrances:
Government complex tunnel, 140 N. Senate, and 315 W. Ohio.

For more information: www.statelib.lib.in.us (Library)
<http://www.statelib.lib.in.us/www/ihb/resources/ihb.html>
(Bureau)